Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Theodore Roosevelt Miles was born on June 21, 1901; and,

WHEREAS, He was born in Summit Township, South Dakota, on the family homestead, which was built in 1883 and still stands; and,

WHEREAS, Theodore served his neighbors and fellow citizens during his lifetime; and,

WHEREAS, Theodore has never avoided those tasks which are more difficult, and has donated thousands of hours to his family, church and his neighbors; and,

WHEREAS, Theodore has been an inspiration to his many friends and relatives by being a wonderful husband to his wife, Jessie, and a loving parent to his seven children Theodora, Kenneth, Donald, Lucille, Vern, Alan, Robert and Lila; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that his friends and family gather together to honor and give thanks to Theodore; and,

WHEREAS, It is also fitting and proper that the citizens of the great state of South Dakota recognize and give thanks for Theodore Roosevelt Miles:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 24, 1987, as

THEODORE ROOSEVELT MILES DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
